

Webinars and Live Events

The Geneva Centre for Human Rights Advancement and Global Dialogue implements systematic environmental scanning for live events, webinars and discussions hosted by the UN Agencies, NGOs, universities and think-tanks on the wide range of topics, including human rights, multilateralism, and Covid-19 response, among others.

UPCOMING EVENTS (4 - 8 May 2020):

05-May: The UN response to COVID-19: Contributions, challenges, and lessons - By DiploFoundation <https://www.diplomacy.edu/calendar/webdebate-un-response-covid-19-contributions-challenges-and-lessons>

06-May: Covid-19's impact on media actors, civic space and human rights - By Consortium for Human Rights and Media in Africa <https://www.eventbrite.com/e/covid-19s-impact-on-media-actors-civic-space-and-human-rights-tickets-104120178256?aff=erelexpmlt>

06-May: Contact tracing and challenges to privacy - By RightOn <https://righton.dig.watch/>

06-May: What is next? Strategic anticipation and COVID-19 - By Geneva Centre for Security Policy - <https://www.gcsp.ch/events/covid-19-webinar-series-global-crisis-global-risk-and-global-consequences-6>

08-May: Will Human Rights Survive COVID-19? - By Forum Asia, CIVICUS & More <https://www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/will-human-rights-survive-covid-19navigating-human-rights-during-after-tickets-104013344714?aff=erelexpmlt>